Women's Advocates

wadvocates.org

No one deserves abuse. A couple stock shares can help.

Founded in 1974 in St. Paul, MN by a collective of activists and legal advocates, Women's Advocates was the first shelter in the U.S. for victims of domestic violence. Today, Women's Advocates offers resources needed for people to rebuild and recover from physical, emotional and financial victimization.

Women's Advocates
Breaking the cycle of domestic violence.

Sustained safety + housing advocacy

- Tenant rights training in shelter
- Landlord engagement and training
- 12 month aftercare program with housing assistance

Crisis intervention + emergency shelter

- 24-hour crisis line
- Support groups
- Mental Health Therapy
- Medical & legal assistance
- Employment & education assistance
- Drop-in child care

Prevention + safety resource education

- In-school dating violence awareness
- Safety resource training for social workers
- Delivery of safety resources to area businesses and training on signs of abuse

For someone who has fled domestic violence, their bravery often cost them their home, job, transportation, childcare, and social network. Invest a couple of shares of stock in our safety resources for survivors. If you have shares to spare, please donate them to Women's Advocates. Just two shares of stock can help us ensure the sustained safety for people who fled domestic violence.

90% 100%

of domestic violence survivors receiving housing assistance remained stably housed for a year & safely away from their abuser.

of emergency shelter residents rebuilt strong community connections while at our shelter, with the support of our advocates.
