Creating a Personalized Safety Plan

A safety plan is a personalized, practical plan for where to go, what to do, and who to call if you are being hurt or abused by someone close to you. It’s important to have a safety plan because when we’re in crisis our brains have trouble processing. Having details written down ahead of time makes it easier to remember what to do in an emergency. Remember - This plan is for you! Take the parts that work for your life, and leave the rest. Share this plan with one or two trusted people and keep it in a private place.

Abuse is not your fault. You deserve safety, respect, and support in your relationships.

STEP 1 - Assessment

Check the behaviors or actions that this person has taken to harm, scare, or control you:

- Control money
- Keep you from working
- Keep you from getting work done
- Force you to work
- Force you to work
- Stop you from calling for help
- Pull your hair
- Choke or put their hands around your neck
- Threaten you with a weapon
- Isolate you from family and friends
- Cheat on you
- Call you names or make you feel small
- Keep you from leaving the room or the house
- Force you to work
- Stop you from calling for help
- Pull your hair
- Cheek or put their hands around your neck
- Threaten you with a weapon
- Isolate you from family and friends
- Partner threatens suicide if you leave
- Force you to do something sexually that you don’t want to do
- Treat you like a servant
- Force you to have an abortion
- Keep you from sleeping
- Keep you from going to school
- Call or text you constantly
- Accuse you of cheating

Many of these tactics can be used in a day, a month, or a lifetime. Even if you have experienced none of these tactics specifically, you may still be experiencing abuse if you are in fear for your health, safety, or freedom.
STEP 2 - Warning Signs

What are some signs or situations that (usually or often) hint that this person might be about to harm, scare, or control you?

Examples:

- My partner gets really loud and physically threatening when drunk. When I know this person is going to the bar for the night, I send the kids to my sister’s house so they don’t wake up and get scared when this person comes home.

- When this person starts muttering cuss words under their breath, I know they’re going to start to yell or hit soon. I try to leave the house for a walk, or stay in another room with the door closed.

Warning signs for my situation:

1.

3.

STEP 3 - Emergency Contacts

It’s important to know who to call for help or in an emergency. Write important phone numbers in this section, so you won’t have to try and remember them.

24/7 Hotlines:

- 911
- Day One (MN hotline for shelter and support): 1-866-223-1111
- Women’s Advocates: 651-227-8284
- Esperanza United (English y español): 651-772-1611

STEP 3 - Emergency Contacts

If I feel confused, depressed, or scared, I can call one of these people and know they will have my back:

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

In an emergency, I can call these people or organizations to help me, pick me up, or increase my safety:

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

In an emergency, four safe places that I can go to are:
1. __________________________________
2. __________________________________
3. __________________________________
4. __________________________________

STEP 4 - Go-Bag

When I need to leave (for a night, a few days, or for good) I can pack a “Go-Bag” full of the items I’ll need. Circle or highlight the items that apply to your situation:

For me:
- Medications
- Vital documents: Birth certificate, ID
- Change of clothes
- Cash or credit card
- Burner cell phone
- Keys

For kids:
- Medications
- Vital documents
- Comfort items
- Formula
- Diapers
- Change of clothes

For pets:

- License and vet paperwork
- Extra food

I will ask someone close to me to hold onto this bag and keep it safe until I need it. This person’s name is ____________________________

STEP 5 - Safety Tips

Below are some tips that may help you stay safe in, or leaving, an abusive relationship. Some of these might not be useful for your situation. You are free to choose what works for you, and ignore the rest!

In my home
• I can ask my landlord to change the locks,
• I can install a security system or more lights outside

In my neighborhood
• I can tell my neighbor to call 911 (or another #: ______________) if they see my abuser or hear something happening at my house
• I can tell my kids’ daycare/school who is allowed to pick them up and/or ask them to call me if my abuser shows up

At work
• I can tell this person: ________________ to call 911/security if they see my abuser nearby
• I can ask coworkers not to tell any customers or callers what my schedule is
• I can ask my boss to switch my hours or location so my abuser can no longer harass me at work

I can try to avoid places where I know my abuser might be, such as:
• Their workplace: __________________________________________
• Their gym: ________________________________________________
• Their friends’ homes or neighborhood: __________________________

I can change my route to and from work by:
Example: having someone drive me, taking the 70 instead of the 74, etc.

Digitally
• I could change my phone number and block my abuser's email/phone/social media
• I could enable the privacy settings, disable GPS/location settings, and change passwords on my phone, computer, and social media

With my kids
• I could teach my kids when and how to call 911 or another safe adult
• I could create an emotional safety plan with my kids (see page 5)
STEP 6 - Emotional Safety

Living in an abusive relationship is hard on your emotional health, too. What techniques help me feel grounded and safe when I'm scared or stressed? Check those that apply and write in your own.

- Deep breathing
- Mindfulness
- Going for a walk
- Listening to music
- Rubbing my hands together
- Smelling a candle
- Hugging my kid
- Cuddling an animal
- Stretching my body

What can I tell myself when I'm feeling down on myself? Circle those that apply and write in your own.

- Making life changes is difficult. It won't always feel easy, but I can do this.
- My home should be a haven of peace, warmth, and safety.
- I'm worthy of love just as I am.
